Iron Workers Local #147 Strike

Gentlemen:

Please be advised that all trades, i.e. Iron Workers, Electricians, Sheet Metal Workers and Operating Engineers have reached a settlement for new contracts as of Friday evening, June 13th, and all pickets have been removed from job sites.

The number of calendar days lost due to the strikes are fifteen (15) and we, therefore, request an extension of time accordingly.

Very truly yours,

Re: Water Filtration Plant Additions

Gentlemen:

Please be advised that due to the national Teamsters' strike from April 1st to April 16, 1979, we were unable to obtain steel sheet piling for the above project.

Also, from April 17, 1979, the local Fort Wayne Teamsters for the concrete plants have been on strike and we are unable to obtain concrete deliveries for this project. We will inform you accordingly when this strike ends and then submit our request for an extension of time due to strikes.
